

Tim Chamberlain

Written by Alan Dunne

Saturday, 18 July 2009 08:59 - Last Updated Monday, 03 March 2014 14:55

---

I got into keeping tropical fish as a hobby in September of 1968, being told it's a fad, but after 42 years fr

I was a member of The British Aquarists Study Society of the first regular catfish group in the UK. I was also a member of the Livebearer Association and The Catfish Study Group. From this you can see I am interested in Catfish and livebearers.

I moved to Hampshire in 1974 and joined Basingstoke club in 1975, had a spell away from the club scene whilst I was proprietor of Andover Aquatics, which I ran for ten years, during which time the A of A came into being.

Tim Chamberlain

Written by Alan Dunne

Saturday, 18 July 2009 08:59 - Last Updated Monday, 03 March 2014 14:55

---

I became a judge for the A of A in the eighties and was upgraded to a Senior Judge about fifteen years ago, at which time I became Vice Chairman of the association